MR ANDREW THEOLOGO

CC to: GUNSITE SOUTH AFRICA

Sir

1. We represent our client and address you on his behalf.
2. We have been provided with and seen for ourselves the myriad comments that you have posted on a public social media forum which are patently defamatory of our client, are in many instances factually inaccurate and of no public interest.
3. We do not at this stage intend to specifically deal with your comments in a substantive way, but we expressly reserve our client's right to do so in the fullness of time and in the appropriate forum.
4. We intend to issue a take-down notice to the host of the website/s which you have used to vent your vitriolic defamatory diatribe against our client but in the meantime, we invite you to publish a retraction of your defamatory statements and to do so within 48 (forty eight) hours.

5. Your failure to do so will serve only to compound the damages which you have already caused our client, which he fully intends seeking from you.
6. You are to further and within 24 (twenty four) hours required to:
  - 6.1. acknowledge receipt hereof and confirm that you will comply with the demand set forth above;
  - 6.2. confirm that you will immediately desist from disseminating defamatory statements concerning our client;
  - 6.3. undertake that you will not in future conduct yourself in a similar manner to that complained of.
7. Our client's rights are reserved including his right to proffer criminal charges against you for the injurious statements that you have without justification chosen to disseminate publicly.

Yours faithfully
